SYNOPSIS

[REDACTED] was a retail store which sold nutritional supplements, work-out powders, and body building supplements which resulted in the collection of sales taxes from 08/06/2012 to 09/30/2013. As of January 1, 2016 [REDACTED] has an outstanding sales tax debt of $63,394.99 without CRF Fees.

The CRF Fees will be excluded from the liability to be dualled as they represent a collection cost incurred by the Board for its collection efforts to collect from the corporation, and stipulations in R&TC section 6833 do not allow for them to be issued personally to the responsible parties of the corporation.

Our investigation has established a dual determination under R&TC section 6829 is warranted against [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

The liability periods for [REDACTED] to be included in the determination include: 04 01 13 - 09 30 13 (BA), 01 01 13 - 03 31 13 (SA), 10 01 12 - 12 31 12 (SA), 08 06 12 - 09 30 12 (SA).

The liability periods for [REDACTED] to be included in the determination include: 04 01 13 - 06 30 13 (BA), 01 01 13 - 03 31 13 (SA), 10 01 12 - 12 31 12 (SA), 08 06 12 - 09 30 12 (SA) and will not include the liability period 07 01 13 - 09 30 13. [REDACTED] had no further involvement with the operations and management of the business after August 2013 when [REDACTED] filed for a restraining order against [REDACTED]; Dissolution filed on 1/22/14 revealed that [REDACTED] would receive 100% interest in [REDACTED] (Exhibit 6).

The evidence necessary to establish a dual determination against [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] is as follows:
